In 2018, Strawberry Hampton won a lawsuit against the IL Dept of Corrections for the repeated sexual assaults and beatings she faced from guards and other inmates while incarcerated and misgendered in men's prisons.

The lawsuit resulted in mandatory trainings on transgender issues for all ILDOC staff, and for Strawberry's transfer to a women's prison.

"I want the world to see how badly they treat trans women and get away with it."

"I'm a strong black powerful woman and I refuse to be silenced to a hate crime."

"Thank you for the love support protection and friendship."
